B3 Active or passive?

a) Mark all the verb forms in the text.

Ice lollies are called popsicles in the USA. They were invented by accident. In 1905 Frank Epperson, an 11-year-old boy, made a drink for himself with soda powder and water, but he forgot it outside. The next morning it was a lump of ice. The stirrer became a practical handle. In 1922 Frank's ice lollies were served to guests for the first time. Two years later Frank was awarded a patent for his 'Ice on a stick'.
